Re: Church of Scientology International v. Gerald Armstrong
Adversary Proceeding No. 95-1164, United States Bankruptcy
Court for the Northern District of California

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

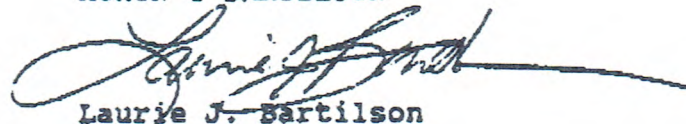

At your request, I revised the subpoena in the above-captioned manner to compel the Gerald Armstrong corporation to produce documents today. I am shocked that after requesting any date this week, you suddenly decided to be "unavailable," and to ignore a federal court subpoena.

Whether or not you can appear to answer questions, I expect you to cure your contempt of the subpoena by supplying the requested documents to me at Mr. Wilson's office no later than February 2, 1996. In light of our mutual obligations to exchange trial exhibits by February 6, your proposal that you appear on February 8 or 9 is obviously unacceptable.

Please have all of the documents delivered to me in care of Mr. Wilson's office no later than 12:00 noon, on Friday, February 2. In the interest of compromise, and actually achieving the discovery, your presence, or that of any other corporate representative, is excused.

Sincerely,

MOXON & BARTILSON

Laurie J. Bartilson
